From THURSDAY February 12, to THURSDAY February 19, 1741.

LONDON, November 16.

THE deceaſed Czarina, Anne Iwanowna, Empreſs of Ruſſia, was the Daughter of Iwan or John Alexowitz, who was the Elder Brother of the Czar Peter I. call'd Peter the Great, and for a Time Aſſociate with him on the Imperial Throne, but dy'd in May, 1696, whereas Peter the Great reign'd till the 8th of February, 1725. She was born the 28th of May, 1693, and married the 13th of Feb. 1710, to Frederick William Duke of Courland (Nephew to the late King of Pruſſia) who dy'd in January, 1711, in the 19th Year of his Age, as he was returning with his then lovely Princeſs from Petersburgh to his own Country. She was proclaim'd Empreſs on the 29th of January, 1730, upon the Death of Peter II. her Couſin, and Grandſon to Peter the Great, when he was on the Point of being married to the Princeſs Catherine Dolghorucki, Niece to the Velt-Marſhal of that Name. The Friends of Princeſs Elizabeth, Daughter to Peter I. thought it very hard that ſhe ſhould be ſet aſide, to make room for another; but 'twas conſider'd that the Daughters of Peter being only of the younger Branch, it was but juſt to return to the elder Branch, as ſoon as the Female Line was to take Place upon the Extinction of the Male Line. She has left the Crown to the Infant Prince John, Son to the Princeſs Anne (Wife to Prince Anthony Ulrick of Brunſwick-Wolfembuttle) which Anne is the Daughter of the late Dutcheſs of Mecklemburgh, who was Siſter to the deceaſed Czarina.

Petersburgh, October 19, O. S. By the laſt Will of the late Empreſs, the Duke of Courland was declar'd Regent, with an abſolute Power in all Affairs within and without the Empire, both in reſpect to the Armies and Finances. It is therein likewiſe provided, that in Caſe the young Emſhould die without Poſterity, and no Children left of the Marriage of the Princeſs Anne and Duke Anthony Ulrich of Brunſwick, the Duke of Courland, in Concert with the Miniſters of the Cabinet, the Veldt-Marſhals and Generals of the Army, ſhall be empower'd to appoint a new Sovereign.

Norwich, Nov 8. We have had very melancholly Accounts all this Week from the Sea-Coaſts, of Ships being drove on Shore laſt Saturday Night by the high Wind; between Lynn and Yarmouth are above 60 Sail, but moſt of the Men are ſav'd, except at Yarmouth, where there has been above 30 dead Bodies waſh'd up; the Crew of one Ship had tied themſelves to the Maſts and Shrouds, but all periſh'd before Help got to them. There is hardly a Town on the Coaſt, but have receiv'd ſome Damage, either in their Houſes, Barns or Stables.

Edinburgh, Novemb 3. The Storm of Froſt and Snow is now as ſevere here as ever was known in the Middle of Winter.

Dublin, Nov 22. The Panther, a 60 Gun Ship, and the Salisbury, a 50 Gun Ship, are arrived at Cork to oblige the French Ships to obey the Embargo; ſo that there are now five Men of War cruiſing on that Coaſt, viz. one of 60, two of 50, and two of 20 Guns each.

Extract of a Letter from Lizbon, Nov 16.

'His Majeſty's Sloop the Fly brought in here the ſecond Inſtant, a Spaniſh Prize which ſhe took on the 30th of October, having on board an Officer and Twenty two Soldiers, a Woman and eleven Sailors. She is a Barcalonga, bound from Cadiz for Corunna, with Stores.

Berlin, Nov. 26. The King has nam'd three Perſons who are to repair in his Name to Francfort, with his Proxy for the Election of the Emperor. The Baron de Kligreff, who is appointed his Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to his Britannick Majeſty, has Orders to ſet out forthwith for London, from whence the Earl of Eſſex is expected here with the ſame Character, as are the Marquis de Botta from Vienna, and Count Bulow from Dreſden. It looks as if our Court will ſhortly be the Centre of ſome great Negociation. Since the laſt Poſt the Diſpoſitions that were making with ſuch Haſte for the March of Troops to Sileſia are much ſlacken'd; and the pacifick Turn which the Domeſtick Affairs of the Empire are taking ſeems to have occaſion'd ſome Alteration in the Reſolutions and Regulations that were form'd for the Maintenance of the Publick Tranquility.

Hague, Dec 6. The French and Spaniſh Miniſters, viz. Mr. Fenelon and the Marquis de St. Giles, have made ſuch Declarations on the Part of their Courts to the Miniſters of our Republick as are very agreeable to their High Mightineſſes, becauſe of their Tendency to the Preſervation of the general Tranquility of Europe, which is the only Thing the States General have at Heart. Prince William of Heſſe will ſoon return hither from Caſſel, his moſt ſerene Highneſs having hir'd a Palace at the Voorhout, where he intends to reſide one or twice a Year. This Prince is of ſuch an engaging and affable Behaviour that he is extremely belov'd and reſpected in this Country, and 'tis not doubted but if the State of Affairs require ſuch an Officer, he will be advanc'd to the Poſt of Velt Marſhal General of the Forces of this Republick. People begin to recover by Degrees from the gloomy Apprehenſion which they had conceiv'd that the Death of the Emperor, follow'd ſo ſoon by that of the Czarina, would be the Epocha of the greateſt Events of this Century: For ſuch is the happy Conjuncture of Affairs in General, and of thoſe of the Germanick Body in particular, that all the Powers ſteer that Courſe which tends to the Preſervation of the Peace of Europe, tho' their different Motives put them into different Paths to attain it. No Augmentation of the Troops of this State is now talk'd of but that which was agreed on two Months ago.

Berlin, Decem 3. N. S. We have received the unexpected but certain News of the following Revolution at the Court of Petersburg: The Duke of Courland is depoſed from the Regency of the Empire of Ruſſia, and committed with all his Family under a ſtrong Guard to the Fortreſs of Schluſſembourg. The Princeſs Anne, Mother to the Emperor, is proclaim'd Regent; the Count d'Oſterman is declar'd her Prime Miniſter; and the Count de Munich, Velt Marſhal General of all the Ruſſian Forces.

LONDON.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the LORDS Spiritual and Temporal, to the KING, on Wednesday the 19th of November, 1740.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return Your Majesty our humble Thanks for your most gracious Speech from the Throne.

The Resolution which your Majesty is pleased to express for carrying on this just and necessary War, in the most proper Places, and in the most vigorous and effectual Manner, is so agreeable to your Royal Wisdom, as well as to the united Desires of your People, that it fills our Hearts with the most grateful Sentiments. As the West-Indies has been the Scene of the most outrageous Depredations and Violences, committed by the Spaniards upon your Majesty's Subjects; we hope and trust, that, by the Blessing of God on your Majesty's Councils and Arms, this Nation will, in those Parts more especially, obtain that just Satisfaction for past Injuries, and effectual Security for their Navigation and Commerce for the future, which have hitherto been refused, contrary to the Faith of the most solemn Treaties

We must ever acknowledge it, amongst the many Instances of your Majesty's Firmness, and true Greatness of Mind, that you have not suffered any Incidents whatsoever, to divert or deter you from these Measures: And we doubt not but your Enemies will soon be convinced, that the Security of your Majesty's Government at Home, must be strengthened in the Affections and Support of your People; whilst your Squadrons are sent to distant Parts of the World, as well for maintaining their undoubted Rights and Interests, as the Honour of your Imperial Crown.

Under this deep Sense of our Obligations to your Majesty, permit us to offer at your Royal Feet the strongest Assurances, That if any other Power should attempt to prescribe or limit the Operations of the War against your declared Enemies; such an extraordinary Proceeding would not fail to create in us the highest and most becoming Indignation, and to determine us to concur in all proper Measures, for vindicating and defending your Majesty's Dignity and Honour against any Insults, and for frustrating any Designs formed against us.

We are truly sensible, that the Death of the late Emperor is an Event which calls for the vigilant Attention of all those who sincerely wish well to the common Safety and Tranquility; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will zealously stand by and support you, in adhering to the Engagements you are under, for maintaining the Balance and Liberties of Europe on that important Occasion, as well as in the vigorous Prosecution of the present War.

To repeat the unfeigned Professions, that we have so often made, of our unalterable Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and our Zeal for the Continuance of the Protestant Succession in your Royal House, may seem unnecessary, when it is demonstrably our essential Interest, as well as our Duty, to persevere in these Principles But we should be wanting to those warm Impressions which we feel in ourselves, if we did not, in this Conjuncture, declare to your Majesty, and the whole World, the fixed and unshaken Purpose of our Hearts, to defend and support this glorious Cause, at the Expence of our Blood and Treasure; and at the same time express our sincere and ardent Wishes, that all your Enterprizes, for maintaining the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and the Rights of your People, may be blessed with the most prosperous Success.

His MAJESTY'S most gracious ANSWER.

MY LORDS,

I Thank you for this most dutiful and affectionate Address. Nothing can be more agreeable to me, than the Zeal you express for the vigorous Prosecution of this just and necessary War, the Support of my Dignity and Honour, and the Preservation of the Balance and Liberties of Europe; all which I have entirely at Heart.

[The humble ADDRESS of the House of Commons will be inserted in our next.]

Dec. 4 From Vienna we hear, that Prince Charles of Lorrain is made a Veld-Marshal; and that a Camp of 25,000 Men will certainly be form'd in Bohemia next Spring

Some Advices from Hanover, pretend, that the King of Prussia has demanded Passage for a Body of Troops through that Electorate.

Letters of the 21st ult. from Hanover say, they have certain Advice, that the King of Prussia has 20,000 Men in a Readiness to act in favour of the Queen of Hungary, wherever her Majesty has a mind to employ them. And there's a Report, that some Prussian Regiments both Horse and Foot are already among the Austrian Troops that are to form a Camp near Pilsen in Bohemia. Nevertheless, according to all Advices, there's greater Hopes of an Union among the Princes of the Empire than was expected.

The Dutch Ship from La Vera Cruz, laden with Spanish Goods, and carried into Gibraltar by one of Admiral Haddock's Squadron, was permitted to go on her Voyage after taking out the Goods, which consisted of 60000 Pieces of Eight, and a large Quantity of Cocoa.

They send us an Account from Paris, that they have now living in that City a Woman of 134 Years of Age; she was christen'd the 5th of March, 1606, in the Church of Batheran, near Grex, in Franche Compte, and now enjoys a good State of Health.

Advices from Naples inform us, that that Court is assembling a Body of 12,000 Men and a Train of Artillery, but for what Service 'tis design'd is as yet a Mystery.

CHARLES-TOWN.

We hear from Boston, that upwards of Fifty Vessels were cast away, in the Storm which happen'd there on the 17th of December last.

By a Vessel from Port Royal, we hear, that a Brigt. bound from New York for this place, (Capt. Hinman Commander) run ashoar on Friday last on their Bar and steve to Pieces, but the Men are all saved

We hear, that a large Ship is ashoar upon Cape Roman Shoals.

On the 9th Instant, Mr Edw. North at Penpon, sent a sensible Negro Fellow to Moon's Ferry, for a Jug of Rum, which is not two Miles from his House, and he drank to that Excess in the Path that he died within 6 or 7 Hours.
